

The Sayville High School Newsflash

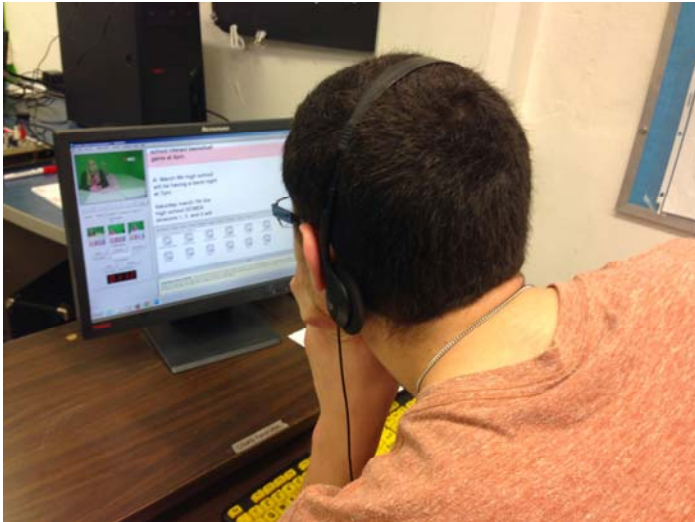

The Sayville High School Newsflash is a weekly/bi-weekly school news program created by students in the Technology Department's Media Production course. Each week, students work to produce a show that profiles school activities and announce upcoming events. The newscast is available for viewing through the school computers and on Mr. Caskey's News Flash Page. (Click on the link below)

<http://www.sayville.k12.ny.us/webpages/rcaskey/index.cfm?subpage=41121>

Media Production is an excellent introductory class to careers in the television, broadcasting, video editing and animation industries.

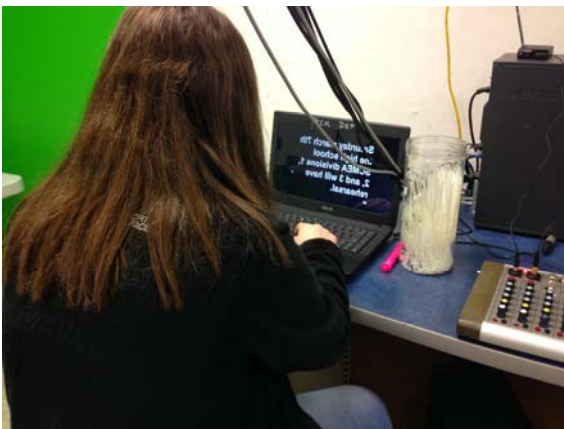

Anchors-Angelina and Keller Claire Levy

Anthony Sirianni-Visual Communicator

Profile Piece-Foreign Language Week
Mickey Danielson-Reporter
William Elia-Camera Person
Mrs. Gray-Chairperson of Foreign Language

Lauren DeSimone-Teleprompter

