THIS CERTIFICATE IS AWARDED TO:

Chase Hofmann

Chase is an extremely hard working and conscientious young lady. She places a large amount of importance in her studies and knows that the end result of education and learning is not the final grade, but the journey that must be taken in order to arrive at the understanding of a concept. Chase is a caring young lady and goes out of her way to assist others. As a teacher looking to the future of our society, it is the innate goodness of young people such as Chase that gives us the ability to come to school every day with a smile on our faces and hope in our hearts that we can make a difference in the lives of the students in front of us.
